Camp Goodtimes at YMCA Camp Reed is a FREE camp for children ages 7 to 17 who have been affected by cancer.

Second week of July

Overnight and day camp option available

Q: HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

A: Camp Goodtimes is provided entirely FREE of charge for every eligible camper. Campers are invited to bring along one sibling or friend to share in the camp experience. Eligibility requirements are set forth in our registration packet.

Q: WHERE IS CAMP?

A: 30 miles north of Spokane, Washington. Transportation assistance is available.

Q: WHAT ARE SOME PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS?

A: At Camp Goodtimes we celebrate each day and invite kids to come play and make new friends in the great outdoors! Special guests include college teams, bass fishing professionals and tie dye artists. Arts & Crafts include water coloring, fimo beads, face painting and temporary tattoos. Other activity options include: archery, swimming, boating, carnival, camp dance, campfires, skits and more! Activities are available for every age and ability level. Choose resident or day camp options.

“Thank you for making camp possible for me. My favorite part was the fun activities and good food.” (Gabe, age 12)

“Camp Reed is beautiful and I met new friends.” (Sara, age 14)

“I got to go fishing for the first time and my favorite part was everything!” (Jack, age 10)

Q: WHAT MEDICAL SUPPORT IS PROVIDED?

A: Our medical team is made up of medical, pediatric and oncology professionals who provide medical supervision and care. A fully equipped infirmary is available on-site and always open. Medication is distributed under the supervision of our medical team. On-site transportation is available if the need for additional medical care arises. Mobility needs of campers are accommodated through staff assistance and golf carts.

Q: HOW CAN I APPLY FOR MY CHILD TO ATTEND CAMP GOODTIMES?

A: Call 509 720 5630 or email campreed@ymcainw.org and we will send you a registration packet.
